

Congratulatory Message from Prince of Songkla University on the Occasion of the 50th Anniversary of Fukuyama University

On behalf of Prince of Songkla University, it is both a great honor and a heartfelt pleasure to extend our warmest congratulations to Fukuyama University on the momentous occasion of its 50th anniversary.

For over five decades, Fukuyama University has demonstrated unwavering commitment towards academic excellence, innovative research, and meaningful community engagement. Your dedication to nurturing talented individuals and fostering international collaboration has made a profound and positive impact not only in Japan but also across the global academic community.

As one of your long-standing partners, we deeply value the strong and enduring relationship that has grown between our institutions. This milestone is not only a celebration of your remarkable achievements but also a reaffirmation of the friendship, mutual respect, and shared vision that unite our universities. Our collaboration through student and faculty exchanges, joint research initiatives, and cultural programs continues to enrich our academic communities and broaden our global perspectives. It is a partnership founded on trust, sustained by shared goals, and guided by a mutual commitment to advancing knowledge and societal progress.

As you celebrate this golden jubilee, we convey our sincere best wishes for your continued success and growth in the years to come. We look forward to deepening our collaboration and building upon the strong foundation we have established together.

Congratulations once again on this auspicious and joyous anniversary.

With warm regards,

Asst. Prof. Dr. Niwat Keawpradub
President of Prince of Songkla University
